

The Six Conversations Model

Information is the stimulus for the conversation in the boardroom.

So how can you make sure your board is receiving the right information, to enable the right conversation?

Steering

Supervising

The Board Intelligence 'Six Conversations' model will help to clarify your board's priorities.

A clear set of board priorities are the foundations for an effective board pack, enabling a focused and productive conversation about the things that matter.
